

Resource for Top 10 Things NOT to do as a Bible Teacher

Top 10 Things NOT to do as a Bible Teacher:

- #10 - Fail to compare interpretations from more than one source.
- #9 - Steal other people's material, including their stories.
- #8 - Assume teaching is a gift and not also a craft.
- #7 - Shoot from the hip.
- #6 - Cram too much information into the talk.
- #5 - Teach topically when you're teaching through a book.
- #4 - Try to be something or someone that you're not.
- #3 - Prep entirely alone without feedback during the process and afterwards.
- #2 - Spend more time on illustrations and slides than in God's Word.
- #1 - Forget that ultimately only God can move through what you say.

John Dyer's resource on Best Commentaries

BOW's resources on Studying and Teaching the Bible